Puffin' again
So happy with his friends
He can dance even in his car
Straight guys should know
Whatever is on his mind
He's got a reason
Always got a reason
He's got a reason for every season
Scared to be smart
So far he's everything
If you're laughing
He is laughing too
Just don't let him begin
'Cos in the end he'll win
He's got a reason
Always got a reason
He's got a reason yeah
Hole in his head
You always tried to never be lied to
Now you understand
He's not your friend
High class, my ass
You always tried to never be lied to
Now you understand
You have to seek someone else
With another reason
With another reason
Tricky tricky trick
Dreamin' again
But he's not asleep
His eyes are open starin' at you
Reads your mind through his pipe
And the he tells you that
He's got a reason
Always got a reason
He's got a reason for every season
Impressive you guess
He couldn't show you less
But still you're snowbored like the funky bros
Life must go on
And this is just a story

I've got a reason
Always got a reason
I've got a reason yeah
Hole in his head
You always tried to never be lied to
Now you understand
He's not your friend
High class, my ass
You always tried to never be lied to
Now you understand
You have to seek someone else
What's wrong with someone overweight
Big surprise
He's coming after you
With a reason
Always with a reason
With a reason
Tricky tricky reason, my ass
He's got a reason
Always got a reason
(Repeat 8x)
Hole in his head
You always tried to never be lied to
Now you understand
He's not your friend
High class, my ass
You always tried to never be lied to
Now you understand
