I haven't much to say today because the nowhere album is on
Thinking to much about tomorrow and the inspiration's gone
The good times the bad times seem to be the same When I'm doing something my mind is always somewhere else
All the talk about the one day plan hasn't got to me
Only my memories can make me feel free
Anything
I can do anything I wan't to
In the house of blend is where I find my energy I'm to occupied with my own dreams a numskull in a bed
You tried to dissapoint me with the things you said
But not now I'm busy maybe in a month
Wake me up and feel my empty mind with doubts
All the talk about the one day plan hasn't got to me
Only my memories can make me feel free
Anything
I can do anything I wan't to
In the house of blend is where I find my energy
Give me something to hate
Cause I can't go on hating me
Give me someone to blame
And tell me there's nothing wrong with me
Eject me if you can
Reject me if I come again
Consciousley I will run into
More fun
More fun
More fun
Anything
I can do anything I wan't to
In the house of blend is where I find my energy
