You say that most things in life is for free
But I doubt you can be
So stupid that you never see
I say that you and I will never be same
But you say you never listen
Never listen to what I have to say
So take my piece of advice
Always be nice
And you always said I'm sorry
I wonder why you always felt so sorry
You always lie
And never do talk clean
You say that I am such a fake
I say that you and I will never be same
But you say you never listen
Never listen to what I have to say
So take my piece of advice
Always be nice
And you always said I'm sorry
I wonder why you always felt so sorry
I never asked you to
Forever be with me
I hope that you can see
What you have changed me to
I'll never smile again
I'll never talk to you
I hope that you can see
That I don't want you here
That I don't want you here
That I don't want you
And you never said I'm sorry
I wonder why you never said I'm sorry
