When i saw you, I was not even looking
I heard you scream without raising you voice
Will I run or let you have your fun
I feel like I ain't got no choice.

But maybe I ask too much or wlk in the wrong direction
All those thoughts drive me insane
And i wonder how long i fell this.

Pain, is not really what it is
No, it's something different with a different name
And you, you never tell me damn thing
I hope someday I'll learn to play this game.

Fear, of course I fear the unknown
Because the unknown is a stranger to me
But if you erase the pj's
Then what could a stranger be
That remains to be seen.

Life goes on, it's just the same every day.
Life goes on, though you think you feel this pain.
