Looking back on what I've done
Regret is all I see
I miss you
And the way it used to be

My selfish ways have put me here
Alone I feel ashamed
And I know
That I am the one to blame

I know you feel the same
I don't believe that a future day
Will make it go away
I don't believe that a single try
Will make me see the light

I start again back on square one
Forgot what I've become
Now I am looking back on what I've done

I have to trust my guts this time
To believe that I'll be fine
I have to trust myself
I'll be okay

But I was fine today
Because I believe that a future day
Will make it go away
And I believe that a single try
Will help destroy the light

A single try
A single try
A single try

Will make me see the light

Because I believe that a future day
Will make it go away
And I believe that a single try
Will help destroy the light

Because I believe a... (future day)
Yeah I believe in a future day
Will make it go away (future day)
Yeah it helps it go away

Destroy the...
Destroy the light
Destroy the light
Destroy the light
