Welcome down to Ruby Lane

Take your pick, sir

We're all the same

The sky is my one direction

The earth is my bed

Welcome down to Ruby Lane

Save your soul, man

For life's a game

Receive me as a dancing monkey

And throw me a dime

And if you see my brother

You'll know 'cause he's wearing no shoes

Won't you be so good, man

And throw him some food

You come back now and share your peace

We'll still be here

'Til time's release

I'm here with my one companion

The road beneath my feet

And if you see my brother

You'll know 'cause he's wearing no shoes

Won't you be so good, man

As to throw him some food

Welcome down to Ruby Lane

Take your pick, sir

We're all the same

I'm here with my one companion

The road beneath my feet

I'm here with my one companion
