Life in a civilized society
Can't you see that it has made you weak
You wouldn't survive in this world alone
A life without hardship is all that you've ever known Return to Primitive ways, Ruling with might Kill or be killed
Fight or flight
Live from the land
Obey no command
I have no master
I have only the strength
To kill and subdue my prey, Stalking them down
Day after day
Baring my teeth, Raising my spear
The call of the wild
Has cut away all the fear
Cut by stone
Tearing at the carcass
Stench of death
No life left
Broken bones
Shattered teeth
Kill to feed
Savagery
Animal
Wild beast
We descend
Into savagery
Cities spread like locust, consuming all in their path
The skies are getting darker, the seas are turning black (Solo - Adam Carrol)
The lands are ravaged in mindless persistence
The species must devolve to preserve it's own existence
Cut by stone
Tearing at the carcass
Stench of death
Broken bones
Shattered teeth
Kill to feed

Savagery
Animal
Wild beast
We descend
Into savagery
We descend... Eternally
