Submitting the lyrics

Don't stop, don't let it fade away.
Keep on, keep it on.
Let it happen.
If it should stop, we'll take it from the top again.
We'll hit the floor, you've heard the rest before my friend.
I'll take your word, you've fallen for him.
I guess that was selfish of me.
And oh by the way, what would you say to "You'll be mine someday?"
I'll drive for hours to your house.
I know you're inside thinking of me, four hours away.
I know it's hard to communicate,
When you're locked in the trunk with your mouth taped shut.
You're making it hard to scream.
You're making it hard to leave.
What would you say?
