LIGHTS OUT!

What is it, that we could say,
Would change your outlook on being brave.
I never thought, you'd be like this,
You'd rather take a chance on a chance to miss,
A light that speaks of a never ending truth,
The words we say will remain in you
As long as we can sing, well sing for you
Don't wait for tomorrow, raise your voice tonight, HEY,
HEY
You'll save this burning soul, just watch it die,
Cause when it falls, a voice will ring so loud
Hey, hey, don't wait for tomorrow,
Just raise your voice tonight
Lights out, lights out, HUH!...
It's you that makes the choice,
To stay cause when it's comes it's gonna come just like a,
And you'll be far from me to decide,
I know you said you would, i know but im breaking just somedays
A light that speaks of a never ending truth,
And the words we say will remain in you
As long as we can sing, well sing for you
Don't wait for tomorrow raise your voice tonite, HEY,
HEY
You'll save this burning soul, just watch it die,
Cause when it falls a voice will ring so loud hey, hey,
Don't wait for tomorrow, just Raise your voice tonight
Get down, that's right
Don't wait for tomorrow, just raise your voice tonight
You'll save this burning soul, just watch it die,
Cause when it falls, a voice will ring so loud
HEY, HEY, don't wait for tomorrow,
Just raise your voice tonight, lights out
I HOPE YOUR READY FOR THIS
