Now all this time you had him going
Never a chance of him knowing
But the truth will always find a way
To shine through, and force only dismay

Your secrets lie inside
Your sea can't rise, in time
Your dreams are wearing thin
Nightmares resulting from what you did

So step, back, so step aside
Insight, all in mind
So step, back, so step aside
Insight, all in time

Now you can say he'll never trust you
For the same reason you can't trust him
For the things he chose a feeling over
A true friend and now you wish it was all pretend

So everything is fine
You got it your way you fucked his life
You can't change his mind
The rest is ruined, now rectify

So step, back, so step aside
Insight, all in mind
So step, back, so step aside
Insight, all in time

Now all this time you had him going
Never a chance of him knowing
But the truth will always find a way
To shine through, and force only dismay

Now all this time you had him going
He'll shine through, and force only dismay
Now you can say he'll never fuck you
He'll shine through, and force only dismay

So step, back, so step aside
Insight, all in mind

So step, back, so step aside
Insight, all in time

So step, back, so step aside
Insight, all in mind
So step, back, so step aside
Insight, all in time

Now rectify! now rectify!
Now rectify! now rectify!
