When I was a kid, you know I thought that I could fly
Threw myself out of window, right out into the sky
Now that I am older now, I know that I could die
Die from a depression, yeah
Would learn my lesson, learn my lesson well

Life's so normal, nothing's shocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking
Life's so tragic, nothing's clocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking hard

When I was a kid, you know I thought that I was strong
The girls in school got beaten up by me every day long
Now that I am older now, I know that it was wrong
To deal with girls in the first place, so a broken heart is now the case
Broken hearted in disgrace

Life's so normal, nothing's shocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking
Life's so tragic, nothing's clocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking hard

It's a boring planet, we're just lying to ourselves
It's a boring planet, thanks to us and no one else

Life's so normal, nothing's shocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking
Life's so tragic, nothing's clocking
Boring planet 'cause no one here is rocking hard

No one here is rocking hard
