I shouldn't lived in this part of town
Human nature sure has let me down
Segregation, does it ring a bell?
Well, I've gotta name that you can't spell, can't spell

Oh yeah, I know I've said it all before
That I don't care where I belong no more Well, I'm just amazed 'cause when I look around, around
There are only rich, blond kids at the near playground

At the Well park Tram station they get in and you get
It's a modern world sensation and it makes me wonder
Oh yeah, it makes me wonder what it's all about?

I say it's fear, it's fear, for all what's queer
If it's strange we panic, yeah, we won't come near
And this fear, this fear, won't disappear
No, the problems organic, yeah, it will stay here

I know, I'm here 'cause I've got the cash
Yeah, once you've got the money there won't be no clash
Yeah, money is kind of sweet, it solves a lot for me
God bless [Incomprehensible] and the economy

Oh, at the Well park Tram station they get in and you get out
It's a modern world sensation and it makes me wonder
Oh yeah, it makes me wonder what it's all about?

I say it's fear, it's fear, for all what's queer
If it's strange we panic, yeah, we won't come near
And this fear, this fear, won't disappear
No, the problems organic, yeah, it will stay here

So what's a citizen to do?
Well, I could change my name
Or give all my money to the fuel?

I say it's fear, it's fear, for all what's queer

If it's strange we panic, yeah, we won't come near
This fear, this fear, won't disappear
No, the problems organic, yeah, it will stay here

The problems organic, yeah, it will stay here
The problems organic, yeah, it will stay here
If it's strange we panic, yeah, we won't come near Yeah, if it's strange we panic, yeah, we won't come near

I say it's fear, it's fear, for all what's queer
If it's strange we panic, yeah, we won't come near
And this fear, this fear, won't disappear
No, the problems organic, yeah, it will stay here

The problems organic, yeah, it will stay here
The problems organic, yeah, it will stay here
If it's strange we panic, yeah, we won't come near
If it's strange we panic, yeah, we won't come near
