On your knees 'cause you're not wanted
Your life is a chaos, you wonder will it ever end
And all these feelings, they're for real, yeah
Keep you down just the way it's planned out today
Today you've lost your way

People grin behind your back, they're talking
They say you're doing it the wrong way once again
All these relations that you believed in
Seem to brake up and it drives you crazy

But any day you'll feel okay
Your shoes will get you anywhere
Just be patient 'cause soon you'll have your fun
I'm sure you'll have your fun

Staying in, hide away from problems
Imagination's playing games with you again
It's not illusion, it's just confusion
But when the fog's gone you'll come out strong

But any day you'll feel okay
Your shoes will get you anywhere
Just be patient 'cause soon you'll have your fun
Yeah I'm sure you'll have your fun

And there's no time and there's no time
And there's no time to be feeling down

But any day you'll feel okay
Your shoes will get you anywhere
Just be patient 'cause soon you'll have your fun

'Cause any day, I'm sure you'll have your fun
Yes I'm sure you'll have your fun
Yeah I'm sure you'll have your fun
