Do you know about the Einstein crew?
And do you know just what they want to do?
They're always drinking, never thinking
Just looking for someone they can take and beat down

They say, they hate that guy
When I ask how come they don't know why
They're so damn full of hate but do you think They're smart enough to hate themselves too?

So now you got your crew behind and behind you even Left your mind, come on and step to me

Kick me and I'll kiss your back
Kick me, after three, six packs
Kick me, hope it feels alright
Kick me, before I get the chance to ask you why

Do you know about the Einstein crew? I hope you do
Because they hate you too
Next time they'll be kicking you
Just because you're smarter than their whole crew

Some of the were buggin? me, when I asked them about their history
Do you really believe, these guys, they're stereotypes
so stereotype
But who am I to say, who am I to judge?
Who would ever listen to a guy called Fudge?

Kick me and I'll kiss your back
Kick me, after six, six packs
Kick me, hope it feels alright
Kick me, before I get the chance to ask you why

You're so [Incomprehensible]

The Einstein crew, oh, I could be your role model
The Einstein crew, one or two got their own pro model
The Einstein crew, we feel sorry for you
The Einstein crew, you're one big problem
And some day you'll be sorry too

Kick me and I'll kiss your back
Kick me, after nine, six packs
Kick me, hope it feels alright
Kick me, before I get the chance to ask you why

Kick me, kick me
Kick me, kick me
