I know I get what I give, since I don't feel too good
Guess I don't give much, maybe I just wanna live
I knock on wood every time, I feel human touch

What can I do to fit in? Kiss up to someone
It will never happen, when alienation hits in on me
My empathy is gone, my conscious blackens

And I just spit in your face, when you ask for help
My heart is made of stone

Nobody's best friend, I'm on my defense
Everyone stands alone, another elbow hit
Somebody's ego trip, everyone stands alone
Everyone stands alone

I know I get what I give, funny vibes, what goes around
Comes around but yeah, I just wanna live
With someone by my side, some kind of close bond

Another spit in your face, every time you need me
I am busy with my own

Nobody's best friend, I'm on my defense
Everyone stands alone, another elbow hit
Somebody's ego trip, everyone stands alone
Everyone stands alone, when it all comes down to it
We all stand alone

S-s-stand alone, nobody's best friend
I'm on my defense, everyone stands alone
Another elbow hit, somebody's ego trip
Everyone stands alone

So many times it's been shown
Everyone stands alone, hearts that are made of stone
Everyone stands alone, when it all comes down to it
We all stand alone
