

Millencolin "Mr. Clean"

Visit "Mr. Clean" on MotoLyrics.com

Mr. Clean tell me is that really you
I wonder what you've done
To become so big and dumb
But I know you can change your lifestyle once again
It's cool to be clean
If you know what I mean
When I gave you my favourite Chiquita shirt
I gave it to a guy who is cruel to everyone he meets
And who shows the world he's incomplete
Mr. Clean tell me is that really you
I wonder what you've done
To become so big and dumb
Last time we met you beat me up
That was no surprise
Though I miss the days when you were nice
It's hard to believe
That you don't owe me shit
I'm well aware of what is yours and where to draw the lines
At least I have the right to write
Anything I think is right
Mr. Clean tell me is that really you
I wonder what you've done
To become so big and dumb
Last time we met you beat me up
That was no surprise
Though I miss the days when you were nice
When you were nice
Looking back at the days when we were friends
Together as one we followed all the trends
But now a friend is less worth than a neggy trend
Mr. Clean tell me is that really you
I wonder what you've done
To become so big and dumb
Last time we met you beat me up
That was no surprise
Though I miss the days when you were nice
When you were nice

Visit Millencolin page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

