When I saw you I was not even lookin'
I heard you scream without raising your voice
Will I run or let you have your fun
I feel like I ain't got a choice

But maybe I ask too much
Walk in the wrong direction
All these thoughts drive me insane
And I wonder how long I'll feel this pain

Is not really what it is
This is something different with a different name
You, you never tell me a damn thing
I hope someday I'll learn to play this game

But maybe I ask too much
Walk in the wrong direction
All these thoughts drive me insane
And I wonder how long I'll feel this fear

Of course, I fear the unknown
Because the unknown is a stranger to me
But if, as if you erase the pj's
Then what would a stranger be?
What would a stranger be?
That remains to be seen

Oh, life goes on
It's just the same everyday
Oh, life goes on
Though you think you feel this pain

Oh, life goes on
It's just the same everyday
Oh, life goes on
Though you think you feel this pain

When I saw you I was not even lookin'
I heard you scream without raising your voice
Will I run or let you have your fun
I feel like I ain't got a choice

But maybe I ask too much
Walk in the wrong direction
All these thoughts drive me insane
And I wonder how long I'll feel this

Wonder how long I'll feel this
Wonder how long I'll feel this pain
