Yeah, ho, yeah ho ho

I spend all the weekdays hanging out with you
I guess I haven't got a better thing to do
You give me nothing though I'm happy all the time
When the weekend comes you turn me down

You try to shake me, shake me
You try to break me, break me
You try to shake me, shake me
You try to break me, break me

Yeah, come on

Do you remember when we were playing pool
I was romantic and said you were a fool
Those are the moments that I really miss
When I'm cool and you think I try to dis

You try to shake me, shake me
You try to break me, break me
You try to shake me, shake me
You try to break me, break me

But I, oh I tried to hide my pride inside of me
But when you came you made me feel real
You made me feel like I really am
Goddamn, now I'm loosing you just because I care

You are my headache, I don't wanna be alone
But when I'm lonely you make me write another song
I think of you and all the things we've done
Who's the loser and who has won?

You try to shake me, shake me
You try to break me, break me
You try to shake me, shake me
You try to break me, break me

But I, oh I tried to hide my pride inside of me
But when you came you made me feel real
You made me feel like I really am

Goddamn, now I'm loosing you just because I care

Yeah, ho, yeah ho ho ho
