Rolled out of bed on a Sunday morning
Went to the park to clear my head
I saw sun goddess bathing in beauty
I said hmmm baby She said go to hell
I said I don't mean nothing bad
What I'm saying is just trying to say hello
She said I heard that before
And you can be sure and there ain't
No place I'm gonna go

When the sun goes down
And the rain begins to fall
Is there any chance you'll find
Someone to hold
Just reach out your hand
Baby then your heart will understand
It's just a sunny day in the park

I saw an old man feeding the pigeons
If they were his only work
With flailing hands he shook his figure at me
And said get out of here jerk
I said hey buddy don't cha know that ain't no way
To treat a prospective friend for a sip of your wine I'll tell you that I'll be your Friend for ever and end

When the sun goes down
And the rain begins to fall
Is there any chance you'll find
Someone to hold
Just reach out your hand
Baby then your heart will understand
It's just a sunny day in the park

It's just a sunny day
Don't let it slip away

Roller bladed junkies and softball flunkies
Angry young kids in black
Playing guitars and smoking cigarettes and

Wondering how to get there future back
I said "hey guys, would you mind if joined ya?"
They said they didn't need my help
Well its been a while so I flipped them a smile
And kept the bird to myself

When the sun goes down
And the rain begins to fall
Is there any chance you'll find
Someone to hold
Just reach out your hand
Baby then your heart will understand
It's just a sunny day in the park

It's just a sunny day in the park
Just another sunny day
It's just a sunny day in the park
Just another sunny day

Just another sunny day
It's just a sunny day in the park
Just another sunny day
