In this tears of my lonely night
In this fear of my brokenheart
I'm standing here with all my broken trust
Try to hold on from your fkin lie

Is there any way to escape from here?
Or I must stuck here for a thousand miles?
I believe in you to take my trust
But you give me lie to catch your heart

You said...
"don't bother me again, and please we are just being friend"
But tell me why... and tell me why... so tell me why...
I cannot heal this pain
You said...
"don't bother me again, and please we are just being friend"
But tell me why... and tell me why... so tell me why...
You never understand

I really love you (but you always pretend to love me)
I really need you (but you just wanna play with my heart)

Please stay... I want you stay...
I want you here... I want you here to understand me...
