I hurt all over
I dream the pain
I sweat the storm again
I breathe the rain
I hurt all over
I dream the pain
I sweat the storm again
I breathe the rain
Think I'll play god for awhile
Think I'll open my legs and smile
Think I'll have a little fun
Think I'll shit upon everyone
And rip the shards from what it lacks
Going on without looking back
They were the ones that thought I would lose
I made them an offer they just couldn't refuse
I sweat the storm
I breathe the sea
I control the world
And you belong to me
I sweat the storm
I breathe the sea
I control the world
And you belong to me
I sweat the storm
I breathe the sea
I control the world
And you belong to me
I sweat the storm
I breathe the sea
I control the world
And you belong to me
I sweat the storm
I breathe the sea
I control the world
And you belong to me
