I've got the perfect plan
To save us while we can
The end is drawing near
My dear, don't fear now

I'll spread the kerosene
You drop the match and flee
We'll be the last to burn
Right here, together

Chorus

When it's time to sleep
Buried six feet deep
And the weight of the world is through
I wanna know you'll be rotting next to me
In a casket that's built for two
Forever undead with you

The flames come sweeping in
And rest upon our skin
Goodbye you sick, dark world
Yeah we'll incinerate the hurt

Chorus

When it's time to sleep
Buried six feet deep
And the weight of the world is through
I wanna know you'll be rotting next to me
In a casket that's built for two
Forever undead with you

(Interlude)

Death sings to me, it sings to me
A melody sings our hearts to sleep
I kiss you once and smile
Wipe the tears from your eyes
Oh dear god, what a beautiful goodbye

Chorus

When it's time to sleep
Buried six feet deep
And the weight of the world is through
I wanna know you'll be rotting next to me
In a casket that's built for two

When it's time to sleep
Buried six feet deep
And the weight of the world is through
I wanna know you'll be rotting next to me
In a casket that's built for two
Forever undead with you
