Ask me where I'm going
And I'll tell you where I've been
Ask me who I am
And I'll say that I'm your friend
Ask me what I'm doing
And I'll tell you I don't know
Just travelling through life
And now it's time to go

Back when I was just a kid
I used to think the world was big
But really it ain't that big at all
(Not at all)

Foreign lands seemed far away
Until I learned the truth one day
In reality the world's quite small (World so small)

I wanted to sail across the sea
To find another place to be
Where I could live so happily
Well that would be the life for me

I wanted to fly the sky so vast
In a jetplane travelling fast
Looking out the looking glass
Watching the clouds go past

Ask me where I'm going
And I'll tell you where I've been
Ask me who I am
And I'll say that I'm your friend
Ask me what I'm doing
And I'll tell you I don't know
Just travelling through life
And now it's time to go
Now it's time to go

I've been high and I've been low
Seems like everywhere I go

There's a place I could call home
(Home sweet home)

Yesterday is in my shadow
And today is a new battle
Tomorrow is the great unknown
(Great unknown)

Got my tickets, bags are packed
Full steam ahead, no turning back
Smoke is white, the coal is black
The engine's pushing off its track

Ship is setting sail again
It's just me against the wind
Well loneliness is my old friend
Who comes to visit now and then

A time will come for all of us
To pass the element of trust
Climb aboard that final bus
That turns our ashes into dust

Ask me where I'm going
And I'll tell you where I've been
Ask me who I am
And I'll say that I'm your friend
Ask me what I'm doing
And I'll tell you I don't know
Just travelling through life
And now it's time, it's time to go
Now it's time to go
Now it's time to go
Now it's time to go
