Where no one breathes & no one cares
All you can feel is cold embrace
Like a frozen tears can't flow away
I'm trapped in here can't feel the pain

I'm waiting for the sun, we're waiting for the sun
When things are come undone, we're waiting for the sun
I'm waiting...

Like a frozen tears can't flow away
I'm trapped in here can't feel the pain
Like a frozen tears can't flow away
I'm stuck in here can't get away

Please stay with me - come, enter my dreams
Hear time just passing by, let your emotions never die
I'm trapped in my dreams, I'm waiting for the sun
In the chessboard of existence, the final move I mine

Where no one breathes & no one cares
All you can feel is cold embrace
All you can feel is cold embrace

I'm waiting for the sun, we're waiting for the sun
When things are come undone, we're waiting for the
sun
I'm waiting...
