Another day, the sunlight on the floor
Still it's not the same as it was before
The silence of you gone just drives me crazy
The screaming in my head even more

I know that I was meant to love you
But there's so much more to love
So here's a small reminder
That you can always think of

It could've been me, taking you to the movies
It could've been me, holding your hand
It could've been me, walking out on Sundays
It could've been you and me

So many times you've tried to walk away
Looking for the man to go your way
And now you've found the love that you wanted
I love you is easier to say

But when love comes around the corner
And you're ready to go
Just keep that small reminder that I'd still like you to know

It could've been me, taking you to the movies
It could've been me, holding your hand
It could've been me, walking out on Sundays
It could've been you and me

Oh baby can't you see that I'm down on my knees
Begging you

So if you ever think about me
When the sunlight's on your floor
I know you will remember
The way it was before
