It's been said
You can't go back home
You missed your turn, can't take back what you've done

It's been said
You're always on your own
You left behind
It's all sand and stone
It's the matter
I knowing what's in your heart
It makes no difference where you go
It's the matter, I'm knowing what's in your heart

When you find, find your way home
Seems some lovers
You know they come and go

Makes your excuses but time just passes slow
When your last word
Better with your hands
But all those painless
They will all turn to sand
It's the matter
I'm knowing what's in your heart

Makes no difference where you go
It's the matter I'm knowing what's in your heart
When you find, find your way home
If you know where you're going
It don't matter where you've been

When you find yourself vision you need
It don't matter what you've seen, ooooooh
It's the matter of knowing
What's in your heart

Makes no difference where you go
It does matter I'm knowing what's in your heart
When you find, find your way home
It's the matter
I'm knowing what's in your heart

Makes no difference where you go
It the matter I'm knowing what's in your heart
When you find, find your way home
When you find, find your way home
When you find, find your way home
