You could've been my lover
You could've been my friend
You could've been the only
One to let me in
Into your soul
That's where I'm wanting
I'm wanting to go

Now baby what I'm missing
I've been missing you
You told yourself
Something feels wrong

But we just need a little help
Just need a little time
Then everything could work out just fine
If we just had a little time

I could've been my lover
I could've been your friend
I could've been the only
One to let you in
Into my soul
That's where you wanted
You wanted to go

Now baby what you're missing
Is what I'm missing now
You told myself
Maybe somehow

We just got a little help
Just got a little time
Then everything could work out just fine
If we just had a little time

We're gonna be together
We're gonna be so true
I know that we would fall in love baby
So I don't have to be this blue

But we just need a little help
Just need a little time baby
Then everything could work out just fine
If we just had a little help
Just had a little time baby
Then everything could work out just fine
If we just had a little time
Just had a little time baby
Had a little time baby
Just a little time baby
It's all we need
A little time baby
We need a little time baby
It's all we need now
We just need a little time baby
It's all we need baby
