I want to tell you how I'm a feeling
I need to tell you how and why
Cause I keep in me the biggest secret
I keep in me the biggest lie

You are everything completely
You are everything to me
And I tried so hard to forget things
Cause it kills me like the biggest lie

You are everything to me
You mean everything to me
I hold you to me like a secret
Will this ever set me free

And you said
That's alright
(That's alright now little child)
[repeat]

I still remember who you are
