Okay

Maybe I'm not as strong as I pretend to be

Okay

Maybe I'm just as insecure as everybody else

But I tell myself, maybe

I can work it out alone

And no one else will ever know

You there

Watching and waiting with the patience of a saint

While I

Wallow in self-indulgent, paranoid philosophies

But I'm no Socrates, baby

And in the end it's like a marathon

I'm running straight to you

I can't seem to take this ride with ease

I can't see the forest for the trees

I'm coming undone

Hello, it's me again

It's me again

Tonight

While all the world is sleeping I will roam the halls

Consumed

With the obsessions of a terminal insomniac

Under attack, save me

From the poets and the poltergeists

Playing in my head

I can't seem to take this ride with ease

I can't see the forest for the trees

I'm coming undone

Hello, it's me again

Yeah, me again

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Me again

So you tell me not to worry
But I'm a frightened little child
With a strong imagination
That can always be found
Running free and wild

I can't seem to take this ride with ease
I can't see the forest for the trees
I'm coming undone
Hello, it's me again
Yeah, it's me again

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Me again

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Me again
Yeah, yeah, yeah
