You weren't the first
But you'll be the last
To see inside
And something suddenly changed
Inside of me
You tore apart
Give me half a day just so I can say
I love you
And take it all away
And maybe you would say
You miss me too
You are mine to remember
At first you said it was real
You said it felt right
Deep inside
But now you need space and time
To get yourself right
I'm in between
Give me half a day just so I can say
I love you
And take it all away
And maybe you would say
You miss me too
You are mine to remember
Walk away
Don't walk away from me
Walk away
Don't walk away from me
Give me half a day just so I can say
I love you
And take it all away
And maybe you would say
You miss me too
You are mine to remember
