She's got the best smile
Reminds me of the night skies
And I can see diamonds behind her eyes.
Let's take another trip home
We've been missing out for too long
Baby everything's all right where we belong.

I've been thinking about you again
I've got it in my head and I can
Drive you home and back again
What's with these words that I can't say

I been wasting my time again
It's such a silly life that I live
Wish I could turn it all back to when
I didn't have these words that I can't say
Oh whoa, Oh whoa whoa, Oh whoa, Oh whoa whoa

Maybe we should take a long walk,
Sort it out with a long talk;
It's not about where we're from,
It's about where we're going.

We've been chasing it for so long
Listening to all the wrong songs
I image it's a long blur 'til we get home.

I've been thinking about you again
I've got it in my head and I can
Drive you home and back again
What's with these words that I can't say

I been wasting my time again
It's such a silly life that I live
Wish I could turn it all back to when
I didn't have these words that I can't say
Oh whoa, Oh whoa whoa, Oh whoa, Oh whoa whoa

Take me home
I'll get you on your feet again
Cuz if this love is worth it's weight in gold I'd be a millionaire

So come on, take me home
I've got you on your feet again
Cuz if this love is worth it's weight in gold I'd be a
millionaire

She's got the best smile
Reminds me of the night skies
And I can see diamonds behind her eyes

We been chasing it for so long
So, so long
Listening to all the wrong songs
Chasing it for so long

I've been thinking about you again
I got it in my head that I can
Drive you home and back again
What's with these words that I can't say

I been wasting my time again
It's such a silly life that I live
Wish I could turn it all back to when
I didn't have these words that I can't say
Oh whoa, Oh whoa whoa, Oh whoa, Oh whoa whoa
