I've got a secret but it's poisonous
Now I know for sure that I broke your trust
If you didn't want to know then you shouldn't have asked
That's the price you pay for digging in the trash

Nows the time watch everything you say
Alright, Alright!
Nows the time we've all got some hell to pay
Alright, Alright!

Gotta do what we can we gotta tear you up
Gotta burn everything we forfeit
Gotta looking nest and a bottle of jack
And some crazy ideas but theres no turning back
We are, We are Woah!

The skeletons, the skeletons in my closet
Will never go away
The skeletons, the skeletons won't go home

The skeletons, the skeletons in my closet
They never go away
The skeletons, the skeletons won't go home

Now's the time to make your way out of here
Alright, Alright!
Nows the time we looked out the coast is clear
Alright, Alright!

We can put this behind us or just give up
But i know what you know, you know i can't let you leave
So i'll make this simple you're coming with me

The skeletons, the skeletons in my closet
Will never go away
The skeletons, the skeletons won't go home

The skeletons, the skeletons in my closet
They never go away
The skeletons, the skeletons won't go home

No you're never, never, never gonna get away
No you'll never, never stop!

The skeletons, the skeletons in my closet
Never go away
The skeletons, the skeletons won't go home

The skeletons, the skeletons in my closet
They never go away
The skeletons, the skeletons won't go home

Go! Go! Woah! Woah!
