Disequilibrium
Epicenter of neutron pollution
Man has stepped beyond -
Over the threshold of existence

The plague of cellular devastation
Has spread too fast all over
Membranes without shelter
Radioactivity exposure

It's all beyond reclaim
Now it's late to master the pain
We turn eyes back once again
Our memories will be our last friend

"I have become death -
The destroyer of worlds"
A bringer of life's abolition
I open the gates to nihilo

Few hours left to the complete holocaust
Extinction comes after the final mistake
The essence of life is now lost
For this there are no existing brakes
Organisms disintegrate
Life suffocates
DNA abuse
No hope for regeneration

Dead winds lash the surface
Now eternity begins
The beauty of life is blackened
Universe has no longer an aim

Aeons of sick progression
Mistaken evolution
An inner strife for suffering
A suicide of all mankind

Some fictional enemy
Triggered that annihilation

Terrorist activity
Caused the world's obliteration
