This life, is almost ending,
And I never felt this life
I will lose this now, and hold my head.
I will lose this now, and hold my head.

You've gotta stop pushing me out
Because I feel so alone,
And I'm scared, that I'm losing my soul
I've got this feeling in my heart and it feels so strong,
Don't be careless.

It's been too long, too long,
(Well I can't even see you now)
Since I have found hope in someone.
(Somebody figure this out, I can't figure this out)
It's been too long, too long,
(Well I can't even see you now)
Since I have found hope in someone.
(Somebody figure this out, I can't figure this out)
So tell me, tell me what's the point, if I don't have faith in myself or anyone else?
Have you ever felt this way?
It feels so strong
Don't be careless.

It's been too long, too long,
(Well I can't even see you now)
Since I have found hope in someone.
(Somebody figure this out, I can't figure this out)
It's been too long, too long,
(Well I can't even see you now)
Since I have found hope in someone.
(Somebody figure this out, I can't figure this out)

Well I will show you,
Just what I'm made of.
And I will show you,
How I can burn.
Well I will show you,
Just what I'm made of.
And I will show you,

How I can burn.

It's been too long, too long,
(Well I can't even see you now)
Since I have found hope in someone.
(Somebody figure this out, I can't figure this out)
It's been too long, too long,
(Well I can't even see you now)
Since I have found hope in someone.
(Somebody figure this out, I can't figure this out)
