Here we go again,
It's like you're calling all the shots before I shoot them and I hate that.
Every time I turn my back I wonder what you'll say to make me sound like someone different

It's not worth it anymore!

We've been picking up the pieces
Leaving all the dust behind.
Sick of all the pressure
you're just wasting time
And I don't ever wanna know what it feels like to be a shadow of myself and I don't ever wanna come back down from this feeling
What makes you think that you know what's better for me
And I don't think you wanna see what's underneath
your made up version of me

There you go again believing that the truth is what you're reading Talk some shit I haven't heard before.
If you've got something to say Don't wanna talk about it
If you need someone to blame Don't wanna cry about it I measure life in minutes but these critics think they've got me figured out

We've been picking up the pieces
Leaving all the dust behind.
Sick of all the pressure
you're just wasting time
And I don't ever wanna know what it feels like
and I don't ever wanna come back down from this
feeling
me
And I don't think you wanna see what's underneath

I lost the strength to keep my grip on the reality that everything from day to day is Fading from my memory but I'll never let this grow out of my control and watch your steps so you don't fall into this hole you've dug alone this hole you've dug alone

and I don't ever wanna come back down from this
feeling
me
And I don't think you wanna see what's underneath
