This moment will last a lifetime,
You always find the light so well,

I guess this is what it feels like to be the ocean.

I guess this is what it feels like to be the ocean.

And we'll sail away from here,
Just hold on my dear.

Shout it loud, let the angels know that we are calling
them out.

And don't be surprised if you feel so alive, if we're inside just hold on tight you'll be fine, you'll be fine.

Follow me through the sunset,
Lets take this to the clouds.

I guess this is what it feels like to be the ocean.

I guess this is what it feels like to be the ocean.

And we'll sail away from here,
Just hold on my dear.

Shout it loud, let the angels know that we are calling
them out.

And don't be surprised if you feel so alive, if we're
inside just hold on tight you'll be fine, you'll be fine.

You are my shooting star that glides across the sky,
across the sky.

You are my shooting star that glides across the sky,
across the sky.

Shout it loud, let the angels know that we are calling
them out.

And don't be surprised if you feel so alive, if we're
inside just hold on tight you'll be fine, you'll be fine.
