"These Walls"

It was all for!
It was all nothing!

When will you think enough?
When will you think enough?

It was all for! (it was all for!)
It was all for nothing!

You turn and ran!
You bring me down!

It's on my hands
You hurt me now!

You'll never get me
The truth rains out!

Without a word
Not even a sound

This is the part where I beg you to stay
But you turn your back and just walk away!

Now you can see
It's not so bad
It's only sane
To put the blame on some one else

And now this is your chance too
(These walls around us)
Add insult to injury
(Will soon fall)
[X2]

Now just say
Just say what you need

When will you think enough?
When will you think enough?

But how am I suppose...
Suppose to believe you

Just cut the crap!
You bring me down
You lied to me
To my face!

Now you can see!
It's not so bad
It's only sane
To put the blame on someone else

Now you can see
It's not so bad
It's only sane to put the blame on someone else

And now
(These walls)
This is your chance to
(Around us)
Add insult to injury
(Will soon fall)

And now
(These walls)
This is your chance to
(Around us)
Add insult to injury
(Will soon fall)

And now
(These walls)
This is your chance to
(Around us)
Add insult to injury
(Will soon fall)
