Lies there are all lies,! (all lies!) you steal what you cant have, screaming just to be heard,(be heard!) by those who dont want to listen, you cheat your way through life, (cheat your way through life!)

crying just to get the attention, i dont think that you will be missed, watching all your dreams full through

CRY! CRY! CRY! all you like,
CRY! CRY! CRY! all you like,

try and take what you want, but you will lose it, in the same way you got it, theres no chance of you getting anywhere, only a few people see through you, maybe someone will save you,

CRY CRY CRY all you like
CRY CRY CRY all you like

you try to fight back against what is said, but what will happen is, that you willl be knocked to the ground, just because you did it before, it doesnt mean that this will happen again,
