I am wide awake
And I'm standing tall
Up against the world
Up against the wall
Between the love and hate
They can hardly wait
To watch the hero fall

You could give me hell
You can give me death
But before I bend,
I will have revenge
Fire through my veins
I will fan the flames
Until my dying breath

Cause I will never go (go) down (down) any other way
(way)
I will never go (go) down (down) any other way (way)
Gasoline pumping through my veins
Dancing on top of the flames
I will never go (go) down (down) any other way (way)
Any other way

Feel the poison now
Slipping through my skin
I'm not giving up
But I'm giving in
To my darkest side
To my every sin
So I can fight again

You could give me hell
You can give me death
But before I bend,
I will have revenge
Fire through my veins
I will fan the flames
Until my dying breath

Cause I will never go (go) down (down) any other way

(way)
I will never go (go) down (down) any other way (way)
Gasoline pumping through my veins
Dancing on top of the flames
I will never go (go) down (down) any other way (way)
Any other way

Woah oh oh oh oh oh woah oh oh oh
Any other way
Woah oh oh oh oh oh woah oh oh oh

Cause I will never go down any other way
I will never go down any other way

Cause I will never go (go) down (down) any other way
(way)
I will never go (go) down (down) any other way (way)
Gasoline pumping through my veins
Dancing on top of the flames
I will never go (go) down (down) any other way (way)

Cause I will never go down any other way
I will never go down (down) any other way
Gasoline pumping through my veins
Dancing on top of the flames
I will never go (go) down (down) any other way
Any other way

Woah oh oh oh oh oh woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh oh oh woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh oh oh woah oh oh oh
Woah oh oh oh oh oh woah oh oh oh
