I'm west coast bound
For a brand new sound
Lookin' hard for the city of angels

I lost my maps
There's no turning back
All I see is a city of strangers

Someone here make me believe

I'm ready to go
I think you already know
We can save this
Los Angeles
I'm holding my ground
Before the streets get me down
I can shake this
Los Angeles
I'm brakin'
I'm fadin'
I'm waitin' for you
We'll leave the radio on
Until the feeling is gone
I won't miss this
Los Angeles

Sleepless nights
I look to the right
All I see is a pillow that's lonely

Dream of you
Saving me on cue
Wishing that you were laying beside me

All that's left is to believe

I'm ready to go
I think you already know
We can save this
Los Angeles
I'm holding my ground

Before the streets get me down
I can shake this
Los Angeles
I'm brakin'
I'm fadin'
I'm waitin' for you
We'll leave the radio on
Until the feeling is gone
I won't miss this
Los Angeles

WoahOhWoah (I'm goin' home)
Less talk, Less talk
And more walk
Less talk, Less talk

Cause I'm ready to go
I think you already know
We can save this
Los Angeles

I'm ready to go
I think you already know
We can save this
Los Angeles
I'm holding my ground
Before the streets get me down
I can shake this
Los Angeles
I'm brakin'
I'm fadin'
I'm waitin' for you
We'll leave the radio on
Until the feeling is gone
I won't miss this
Los Angeles

I won't miss you
Los Angeles
