The sun dies out tomorrow, tell me where will you be side by side we'll watch the end our hands are held together

I'll take this one step closer if you will follow me yeah we will see tomorrow yeah we will see tomorrow our silhouettes will follow closer ready to ascend yeah we could be ripped apart from all of this girl from all of this and our last effort was always knocked off course to prove that we're so beautiful and that we have a silver screen image of ourselves this picture shows that we're still here our hands are held together we're in this for the long road ahead

it's you and me and no one else dear this world escapes through the parting of your selfish words never ever wanted to remember never ever wanted to remember this or you I held myself accountable for

remember

this or you we're locking all the windows to the cure (they won't give up) and tying our hands behind our backs (cutting off our) we're cutting off our air let me breathe to open the doors to see your eyes something like this I've always wanted to remember
