You can't complain this isn't half as bad as going down in the first round

No no no you can't stop it now

You think that after this is all said and done

You'll be the one standing behind the loaded gun

Because I know it seems that I'm the competition

Come on come on

Slick your hair back and put your dance shoes on it's time to move whoa

Throw your hands up impress somebody you know
you've got it you know you've got it

Slick your hair back and put your dance shoes on it's
time to move whoa

Throw your hands up impress somebody you know
you've got it you know you've got it

Don't hold your breath for very long you'll choke and die then you'll sink to the bottom

Of this ever deepening pool that you call your own

Come on come on it's not all your fault leave some blame for the gods in heaven

Come on come on it's not all your fault haha just keep telling yourself

Come on come on

time to move whoa

Throw your hands up impress somebody you know
you've got it you know you've got it

Slick your hair back and put your dance shoes on it's time to move whoa

Throw your hands up impress somebody you know
you've got it you know you've got it

Follow me pick yourself off the ground follow me pick yourself off the ground

Pick yourself off the ground

Slick your hair back and put your dance shoes on it's
time to move whoa

Throw your hands up impress somebody you know
you've got it you know you've got it Is this what you wanted?
Slick your hair back and put your dance shoes on it's
time to move whoa
Throw your hands up impress somebody you know
you've got it you know you've got it
