Did you close your fist so that you'd be missed when well-to-do came in the room wearing your hat?
Generous and twice as fat
New on the nascent scene
Guerilla in a submarine

You thought that you had found the path
But the avenues that lead are infinite
And now you're not a bit surprised
That you wound up in the place you drifted towards

Did they play Nick Drake for his family's sake?
The radio was taking a nap when Nick broke out
Enough to create the doubt
A sign of the prior scene
