Save yourself

The surface seems so far away
Gasping for air
Keep kicking, keep praying
Hopefully you'll make it in time

What a mess you've got yourself in
You can take it from me
Contrary to your belief
This world doesn't revolve around you

Save yourself

Reaching out with every ounce of strength inside of you
The sun is getting brighter
Feel your lungs start getting tighter

What a mess you've got yourself in
You can take it from me
Contrary to your belief
This world doesn't revolve around you

This world doesn't revolve around you

Reaching out with every ounce of strength inside of you
The sun is getting brighter

Save yourself
