We can transcend the world at a different speed of light

We can close our eyes so that everything's alright
If there's something in the air you can't defeat
Then look towards me

Oh can you feel The World At Your Feet
When you know they don't agree
Oh can you feel The World At Your Feet
When you know they don't agree

We can love all that we never thought we'd care for
We can sail each sea disregarding the shore
If there's something in the air you can't defeat

Then look towards me

Oh can you feel The World At Your Feet
When you know they don't agree
Oh can you feel The World At Your Feet
When you know they don't agree

Maybe I should find my way back home
Maybe I should find a place to go
And if there's Heaven inside of you
Tell me what to do

Oh can you feel The World At Your Feet
When you know they don't agree
Oh can you feel The World At Your Feet
When you know they don't agree
