And i prey to god, that your safe inside my head, my head

this is where we start floating away, we're floating away, from here.

he saw life, he saw dreams, he saw everything he needs and this is the way, from home.

I am Hope.

I am Dreams

I am Everything you need

This is the way

Back home

And i Prey to god that your safe, that your safe inside my head

Take your heart, take my breath, take your hands up off my chest, now i can fly, i swear i can fly.

Time has come you've got to open up yourself.

Just open, up your self.

Just open up yourself
