More and more I can't say no,
So afraid of letting go.
If there's something I can grab,
You can bet I'll pay the tab.

Counting all the flowers,
Waste the precious hours,
I need to find some peace.

All these problems on my mind,
Make it hard for me to think.
There is no way I can stop,
My poor brain is gonna pop.

And I don't have a purpose
Scattered on the surface,
I need to find some peace.

Woah-oh-oh-oh. (repeated)

And all the broken tethers,
We can bring together,
I need to find some peace.

Woah-oh-oh-oh. (repeated)

I need to find some peace. x 2
Woah-oh-oh-oh.
