"What Everybody Wants"

i have brought you here tonight to lay you out upon the stone you're the girl that loves me best thought that you're open you hide your chest darling i think it's time to let you go i don't feel any guilt as i touch your throat taught me how to sing my songs what do drink and not to smoke when to help and who to hate all for love it's so for cave(?) everybody wants a chance to feel all alone hanging out here beside to your open road been a long you have done all you could to keep me in your arms
open up whole chance to choke on your tears
everybody wants a chance to feel all alone suddenly i feel so strong i don't hear a single sound looking up towards the stars i can see from very far everybody wants a chance to feel all alone
hanging out here beside to your open road
your arms
open up whole chance to choke on your tears
everybody wants a chance to feel all alone
everybody wants a chance to feel all alone
hanging out here beside to your open road
your arms
open up whole chance to choke on your tears
everybody wants a chance to feel all alone(3x)
