They all just looked away
Who got the meaning
Must be a bigger man in those shoes
To keep the circus paid
With beans they're eating
Must be a woman in those shoes
Mares eat oats
And does eat oats
And little lambs eat ivy
Killed the ivy too,
Wouldn't you?
[Mairzy doats
And dozy doats
And liddle lamzy divey
A kiddley divey too,
Wouldn't you?]
Staring at the city
Wonder picking at the window
spent on overdrive
Keep a little secret for the promise
So ya come and got us half the life
Lying on the floor,
Medicate a little more
Sing and dance some time
