Hello I love you lets get tested for aids
You know I trust you but you cant tell these days
Hello I love you lets get tested for aids
You know I want you but lets wait a few days

She might look nice and sweet
But sleeps with every guy she meets
You might think you know some guy
But you know guys and they always lie

Hello I love you lets get tested for aids
You know I trust you but you cant tell these days
Hello I love you and Id like to get laid
You know I want you but Im deadly affraid

She hopes my hand and size
But her hand wont satisfy
Our thoughts so wicked but our legs acrossed
And I doubt I cant hold out to long

The doc wont know for at least a week
Im like a dog locked up with my mating heat
And I hope she doesnt see me through Cause I hope to use my rusty tool

Helloooooo Hello
Helloooooo Hello

phone ringing

spoken: Euh, hello?
